

EM-Assist Adds New Talent to Benefit Clients

SALT LAKE CITY, UT – January 27, 2010 – EM-Assist, Inc., a leading provider of environmental services and training solutions, is pleased to announce the recent additions of Russell Goff, Clyde Rhodes, and a strategic alliance with Gryphon Environmental and Robert Ford, CHMM. These distinguished professionals collectively bring decades of technical experience to EM-Assist’s clients, adding new capabilities and expanding our environmental, information management, and training expertise.

- Russell Goff has a background in chemistry and environmental systems engineering, and his experience includes air quality permitting and emissions estimating. He previously held positions with The Solution Foundry, engineering-environmental Management, Inc. (e²M), URS Corporation, and CH2M Hill. Mr. Goff can be contacted by phone at (919) 665-8094 or by e-mail at RGoff@EM-Assist.com.
- Clyde Rhodes has a background in environmental engineering and possesses expertise in creating emission reduction credits (ERCs). He was previously a Partner and Senior Engineer with YES! Environmental, Inc. Mr. Rhodes can be contacted by phone at (801) 597-0477 or by e-mail at CRhodes@EM-Assist.com.
- Robert Ford, CHMM is an environmental scientist with significant expertise in environmental management systems and green procurement. Mr. Ford is a Certified Hazardous Materials Manager (CHMM), and he serves as President and Chief Executive Officer of Gryphon Environmental, LLC (www.Gryphon-Env.com), a certified service-disabled veteran-owned small business (SDVOSB). EM-Assist and Gryphon have formed a strategic alliance to best serve both firms’ clients. Mr. Ford can be reached by phone at (719) 491-7012 or by e-mail at RFord@Gryphon-Env.com.

“Our recent new hires and strategic alliances reflect our continuing commitment to building EM-Assist’s capabilities to best serve our growing base of clients,” said Jeremy Burr, EM-Assist’s Chief Executive Officer. “We’ve experienced nine consecutive years of growth, and we are pleased to offer the most exciting and rewarding career opportunities to the best, brightest, and most accomplished professionals in our industry.”
